belonged to a legal estate, so far as consistent with the preservation and administration of the trust, this was by virtue of a principle of analogy, adopted because courts of equity were unwilling to interfere with the strict course of the law, except so far as was necessary to execute the just intentions of parties, and to prevent the forms of the law from being made the means and instruments of wrong, injustice and oppression, an immediate extinguishment of said case and release of private civilian prisoner is required immediately, as well a complete annihilation of said case herein.
